

Mimi Teahan is an attorney with the Maryland Office of the Public Defender with over twenty years of litigation experience. She is a graduate of Loyola University of Maryland and the University Of Baltimore School Of Law. As an attorney, she handles felony litigation in the Frederick County Circuit Court and also represents her agency before the Maryland General Assembly. She is active in both the Frederick County Bar Association and the Maryland State Bar Association, where she serves on the Criminal Law and Practice Section Council and the Committee on Laws.

She has been certified as a mediator through Community Mediation Maryland, and served on the Board of Directors of the Conflict Resolution Center of Frederick County (formerly CALM). She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Literacy Council of Frederick County, where she is the chair of the Programs Committee. Ms. Teahan has also volunteered with the Frederick Summer Swim League as a stroke and turn official.

As a young attorney, Ms. Teahan wrote several plays which were produced in Baltimore and Washington, including Realtime which received the 1996 Best Play Award in the Baltimore Playwright's Festival.

Throughout her career, Ms. Teahan has enjoyed mentoring young women with an interest in law. She is honored to serve the women of Frederick County as a commissioner.
